

How to explain the rapid expansion of food charity institutions such as food banks and social supermarkets in Western welfare states in the last decades? What is the relationship between the rise of food charity and welfare state transformations? And what role do the dynamics of affective economies play in food charity's consolidation and proliferation?

● Food Charity, ● Welfare State ● Transformations, and ● Affective Economies: Critical Engagements

Conference

21-23 May 2025

WU Vienna

Institute for Sociology and Social Research

Welthandelsplatz 1, 1020 Vienna

Organizers: Brigitte Bargetz, Markus Griesser, and Jessica Gasior

Support: Fynn Schröder

Registration: contact.foodcharity@wu.ac.at

The conference is part of the research project “New Charity Economy Through the Lens of Affective Statehood” (P 35463), funded by FWF Austrian Science Fund. With support of the Institute for Sociology and Social Research, WU Vienna.
www.foodcharity-affectivestate.net

Thirza Andriessen
Brigitte Bargetz
Rachel Bencheckroun
Elisa Bordin
Lisa Marie Borrelli
Marcus Böhme
Meike Brückner
Wendy Burton
Marie Chahrour
Silke van Dyk
Hannah-Maria Eberle
Saskia Favreuille
Francesca Benedetta Felici
Andrea Friedli
Kayleigh Garthwaite
Jessica Gasior
Markus Griesser
Johanna Hofbauer
Hilje van der Horst
Rosa Huotari
Fabian Kessl
Marjukka Laiho
Anu Lainio
Hannah Lambie-Mumford
Christina Lampl
Hanna Lichtenberger
Ilaria Madama
Franca Maino
Carolin Mauritz
Michaela Neumayr
Martina Nußbaumer
Filippo Oncini
Milja Pollari
Giorgia Previdoli
Anna Sofia Salonen
Birgit Sauer
Livia Schambron
Fynn Schröder
Tiina Silvasti
Jeremias Staudinger
Ville Tikka
Silvia Wiegel